A WOMAN IN UNIFORM. Put Off the Train Carrying the Nineteenth Infantry, Euroto to the Philippines.

PITTSBURGH, July 18.—The First and Third battalions of the Nineteenth infantry, from Camp Meade enroute to the Philippines via San Francisco over the Pennsylvania road, passed through here. There were five trains, one of 18 cars containing regimental baggage and equipment and the other four of 10 and 11 cars each for the soldiers. It is not known just when the remaining battalion will leave Camp Meade, but it will not be long.

A handsome woman, probably 25 years old, the wife of a private in Company K was discovered on the train, crossed in the regulation army uniform, arriving here from Martinsburg, W. Va., and boarded the train at Harrisburg. It was her purpose in disguising herself to accompany her husband to Manila and be near him while in the Philippines. She had closely cut her black tresses. She was put off the train in this city. She bid her husband an affectionate farewell and told him that she would meet him in San Francisco.

HARRISBURG, July 18.—Recruits for the new Twenty-seventh and Twenty-eighth regiments of volunteers for the Philippine service were reaching Camp Meade from various sections at the rate of from 25 to 100 per day and there are several hundred at Camp Meade at present.
